

Renate Mousseux

Renate Mousseux M.A ED, Body Language Expert Appeared numerous times on CBS, ABC, Fox TV, and all local TV channels, to interpret Body Language on various national and international news. She was called upon to interpret Body Language in the 3 Presidential Debates between President Obama and Governor Romney. She assessed the Body Language in National Court Cases such as Jodi Arias, the Stacey Anthony court case, the Baby Gabriel case, and the Tucson and Colorado shooters. She was interviewed for the Royal Wedding, the White House Situation Room with President Obama and Hilary Clinton, and the famous picture with President Obama and Jan Brewer. She was interviewed on Radio, and has been featured in various newspaper articles. Renate is a professional public speaker, educator, and author. She has also assisted as a Cultural Consultant for German, French, and American Companies such as Dial/Henkel and Honeywell/Bull. She was a presenter on the Holland American Cruise Line, and at Business Conventions. Renate is a renowned, experienced presenter, known for her lively interaction with the audience, and for her sense of humor.

"Renate was AWESOME! She held our attention from the minute she said hello! All eyes and ears were on her and everyone was engaged - there are so many things she talked about that is relevant to how we do business, how we present ourselves, what are your clients telling you when they sit, walk in the room, or speak?! What does it mean when someone shakes your hand firmly ... or not! "
Michelle Stockman, Lake Havasu Network President

Alison Bechtel's Specialties: Coaching and consulting small and medium sized business owners; meeting, retreat and leadership strategy session facilitation; leading seminars and training for personal and professional growth and maximum effectiveness; Leadership training for all levels of an organization; public speaking. Real estate specific specialties: Brokerage Leadership and Management, contract management, finance, mergers and acquisitions, marketing, meeting facilitation, relocation, REO sales, short sales, training sales people.

Alison will be speaking about Negotiating Win-Win outcomes with Confidence & Grace

Alison Bechtel

Alison has tremendous vision and work ethic. She sees beyond the obvious to solve problems and create strategies for success. Her work ethic combined with compassion and sensibility makes her a pleasure to work with.

Stacie Kvanvig – Keller Williams Legacy One Agent

Alison inspires and empowers others to succeed at their highest level through enrolling them to take action on their goals and dreams. She provides tools that simplify communication and create clarity, and can be applied in many areas. Personally, she continues to inspire me to be my best, constantly stay in motion towards my goals and has a simple way of communicating that has added so much value both personally and professionally. She has a powerful presence that can move anyone willing to grow and learn!

Mandy Monaghan – Keller Williams Legacy One Agent

Her passion and ability to see things from all points of view has made a huge impact on how I run my own business. Her high energy and commitment to always doing the right thing shows up in all aspects of her life. Her willingness to think outside the box and explore all options. Her ideas are easy to follow and her commonsense strategies are something that everyone can put into place quickly. Alison has a way of putting everyone at ease. She is fun, energetic and has an incredible business mindset that has lead her to the top of her field. She enjoys what she does and wants to give back to anyone willing to learn the strategies for success. There are few people with such an intense joy for life and an equally intense joy for making a difference in others lives. She is, without a doubt, someone who is changing the way we work, play and live, one life at a time.

Lynette Clements – Keller Williams Legacy One Agent